

Cordial Invitation

EXTENDED TO ALL VISITORS

TO CALL IN AND LOOK THROUGH THE

GREAT BROADWAY BAZAAR

D. CRAWFORD & CO.

WHETHER PURCHASING OR NOT.

ONE OF THE SIGHTS OF THE CITY.

Broadway and Franklin Av.

We Have on the Second Floor

Of our Establishment the Largest and Best Lighted

CLOAK DEP'T

In the West, newly fitted up, and stocked with garments of this season's manufacture only. We cordially invite strangers and citizens to inspect our incomparable line of Sport Wraps, Walking Jackets, Plush Sacques, Newmarkets, And Misses' Garments.

We have justly earned the reputation of having the LOWEST-PRICED CLOAK DEPARTMENT in the West, and can easily convince visitors of a positive saving of from 15 to 35 per cent. Seeing is believing. Do not fail to visit the FAMOUS CLOAK DEP'T., BROADWAY AND MORGAN.

Plant Holland Bulbs IN THE GARDEN NOW FOR SPRING FLOWERS

We offer a large assortment of Dutch Bulbs, including Hyacinths, Tulips, Narcissus, etc., for fall planting. For Flowers in the Winter and early Spring plant now. Send for Descriptive Catalogue, with directions for planting, free by mail.

C. YOUNG & SONS,

1406 OLIVE STREET.

Growers of Fine Cut Flowers.

The Theory of Air-Tight Ovens on Cooking Stoves Exploded!

THE ERRORS OF 50 YEARS CORRECTED!

For Good Cooking, Fresh Air Admitted Into an Oven is a Necessity.

To show our citizens and the public the Great Improvements and Savings in the USE OF THE GAUZE OVEN DOORS on Cooking Stoves and Ranges. THE EXCELSIOR MANUFACTURING COMPANY will make Daily Exhibitions of Baking, Roasting and Broiling during the Exposition.

Season at 1118 Washington Av. Call And See the Results

A WORD TO THE WISE.

What is the use to buy from high-priced Jewelry houses when you can buy the same goods from us for half the money. We have a large stock of Gold and Silver Jewelry. Diamonds, Gold, and Gold Jewelry, which we are offering to sell for the amount advanced, with interest. Please note the following prices:

Gold Stem-Winding Ladies' Watches, warranted to keep good time, from $ 9.00 up

Solid Gold Diamond Studs, from $ 10.00 up

Diamond Ear-Rings, from $ 10.00 up

Genuine Diamond Studs, from $ 10.00 up

Silver Watches, warranted to keep good time, $ 8 to 6 oz. cases, from $ 6.00 up

Compare prices before purchasing elsewhere.

MONEY TO LOAN FROM $1 TO $25,000. Large loans a specialty at a very low rate.

Business strictly confidential. Large loans negotiated at any place convenient to borrower.

ALEXANDER, Broadway (5th)

E. C. CATTIN, Cor. 6th St. and Vand

CHARLTON DRUG CO., 4th and

Ave., St. Louis, Mo.

or write for circulars & full parti-

Corner of 4th & Locust

MERMOD & JACCARD JEWELRY CO.

Corner of
4th & LocustTHE WAY A GREAT HOUSE DOES IT!
GIVEN AWAY FREEA Ladies' Gold Watch to the Best Guesser.
A Gentleman's Gold Watch to the Best Guesser.
A Girl's Silver Chatelaine Watch to the Best Guesser (must be under 14 years of age).
A Boy's Silver Watch to the Best Guesser (must be under 14 years of age).

We have provided 4 Jars of Beans, properly labeled, which will be on exhibition in our South Show-Window, fronting on Locust street; also, the 4 Watches, as shown below, which will be given as indicated on Saturday, October 23, 1886, the close of the Exposition.

COME ONE!! COME ALL!! AND REGISTER!!!

This competition in guessing is open to everybody.
Parties not residing in the city can send their guesses in by mail, and they will be recorded.

(If more than one party should guess the right number, lots will be cast to decide it.)

A competent committee will count the beans on the above-named date; in each jar will be placed a box of greater or less dimensions, which will have but a few beans in, hence so as to make the guessing more difficult.

Come One, Come All, and Register at the
Cor. of 4th & Locust MERMOD & JACCARD JEWELRY COMP'Y, Cor. 4th & Locust

IT WILL PAY YOU TO FIND US.

Do you know that it will pay you to walk or ride from Franklin Av to 210 and 212 North Broadway to get to trade at the WHEN? Possibly in times past it has not paid, but you can bet all you have that since the WHEN has opened with a stock direct from its factory it will be to your advantage to go to any point in St. Louis in order to buy clothing and furnishings at Wholesale prices. If you are a workman and only want to pay six, seven, eight, nine or ten dollars for a good substantial suit, or an overcoat possibly, we can furnish you with just this kind of clothes at strictly Wholesale Prices—that is to say, you can buy your one suit or overcoat just as cheap as the clothing dealer can buy them by the dozen. This means a saving to you of from three to five dollars on a suit or an overcoat. Investigate this yourself and if you do not find it so you can give us the go-by, and if you do find it pays to trade at the WHEN kindly tell your friends and neighbors.

SMOKE GOLDEN BELT CIGARETTES.
Save on empty wrappers, and you can get 20 for each empty wrapper of a 10c package, and 10 for each empty wrapper of a 5c package. Any quantity, 10c per dozen. Send to Blackwell's Durham Tobacco Co., 416 N. Second St., St. Louis, Mo., or you can get a 10c package of 20 for 10c, or 5c for 5c. For five empty 10c or ten empty 5c wrappers.

Every Man His Own Barber!
The Only Safety Razor in the Market.

Any one can use them without danger of cutting.

For Sale by
A. S. ALOE & CO.,
Cor. 4th and Olive Sts.

Price $2.00 in a Handsome Case.

No Advance in Prices During the Next Week

THE DELICATESSEN LUNCH ROOMS

118 N. Fourth St. — 712 Olive St. — 718 N. Broadway.

LATEST EDITION

THE PROVIDENT BANK.

VOLUMINOUS REPORT OF THE RECEIVER
FILED IN COURT TO-DAY.

A DIVIDEND of Fifty Per Cent Ordered to Be Paid on Thursday, the 14th Inst.—Orders of Court as to Attaching Creditors and Holders of Assigned Claims—Names of the Debtors—List of Debtors—Overdrafts—The Remaining Assets.

The October term of the Circuit Court commenced this morning and there was the accustomed scene of activity under the dome, attorneys hurrying to the five court-rooms to present motions and file reports in pending litigation. The judges sat in general session at 10 o'clock and in five minutes repaired to their respective divisions. The most important business of the day was the filing of Receiver W. H. Thompson's report in the matter of the defunct Provident Savings Bank. Judge Adams, in the receiver's presence, handed up to the bench three thickly bound volumes in case containing a complete list of the assets and liabilities, and he made a general statement, together with the form of an order as to payment of the first dividend.

The total amount of claims presented against the bank was $46,707.89, and the collections so far amounted to $47,176.95. Several creditors represent an aggregate indebtedness of $30,000 or $35,000 and set out attachments in the States of Illinois, New York and Mississippi, and unless such attachments, proceedings were dismissed such creditors would not participate in the dividend now to be declared. The rights of persons who claim under assignment or transfer have to be determined in Court, and the receiver's report will have an opportunity of being heard before Judge Luke in Court No. 1 next Friday morning.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF DIVIDEND.

The Court after some discussion consented to the entry of the following order:

The sum of one and all of said creditors and demands of each and all of said creditors except those who have instituted訴訟 to be allowed to the receiver to attachments due to them, unless cause to the contrary shall be shown, to any party interested by filing exceptions to such allowances on or before Friday.

It is further ordered that any and all persons claiming to be entitled to claims and demands of the receiver to attachments due to them, on or before the 13th of October to the allowances of claims and demands in favor of creditors and assigns, that as to such creditors the payment of their claims and demands shall be made up to the extent of 50 per cent of their respective claims and demands unless before the time aforesaid, such claims and demands filed by some party interested.

The receiver is directed to pay the same dividend of 50 per cent, to all persons who may make proof of the assignment of demands and claims made.

In the event of any exceptions being filed on or before the 13th of October to the allowances of claims and demands in favor of creditors and assigns, that as to such creditors the payment of their claims and demands shall be made up to the extent of 50 per cent of their respective claims and demands unless before the time aforesaid, such claims and demands filed by some party interested.

The receiver is directed to pay the same dividend of 50 per cent, to all persons who may make proof of the assignment of demands and claims made.

In the event of any exceptions being filed on or before the 13th of October to the allowances of claims and demands in favor of creditors and assigns, that as to such creditors the payment of their claims and demands shall be made up to the extent of 50 per cent of their respective claims and demands unless before the time aforesaid, such claims and demands filed by some party interested.

It is further ordered, in the payment of the dividend, as aforesaid, if it be found that any of the creditors of the Provident Bank or their assigns are indebted to the bank in any amount, the receiver shall deduct the amount of such indebtedness from the dividend or if such arrangement is not satisfactory to such creditor that he shall suspend the payment of the dividend until further order of court.

THE DIVIDEND.

The entire amount of the claims of the court was given up to the hearing of intervening petitions, claims and set-off matters. The following is a list of all depositors presenting claims at the bank in sum over $100.

Allen, J. S. $ 131.61 Allen, G. C. $ 115.85

Armstrong, L. $ 30.41 Armfield, Mrs. 620.00

Appleton, A. 1,038.00 Appleton, Mrs. 1,038.00

Athenaeum, L. 100.00 Atchison Publishing

Atkins, J. F. 1,334.41 Atkinson, E. S. 971.25

Allen, H. P. 360.00 Allen, Mrs. H. G. 150.00

Archibald, J. M. 1,249.00 Archibald, Mrs. 1,249.00

Blair, Albert 1,410.00 Blair, Marcus 1,410.00

Brown, W. 1,275.00 Brown, Mrs. 1,275.00

Bowman, G. A. 1,038.00 Bowman, Mrs. 1,038.00

Burnett, J. 49.00 Burnett, Mrs. 49.00

Barnard, Jas. 81.90 Barnard, Mrs. 81.90

Barnard, L. L. 1,415.41 Barnard, Mrs. 1,415.41

Bousell, R. S. 1,155.00 Bousell, Mrs. 1,155.00

Buckley, A. 1,410.00 Buckley, Mrs. 1,410.00

Brown, E. W. 1,250.00 Brown, Mrs. 1,250.00

Brown, J. 1,250.00 Brown, Mrs. 1,250.00

St. Louis Post-Dispatch, PUBLISHED BY THE DISPATCH PUBLISHING CO.,
JOSEPH PULITZER, President.

[Entered at the Post-Office at St. Louis, Mo., as second-class mail matter.]

TERMS OF THE DAILY.
One year, postage paid..... $8 00
Six months..... 4 00
Three months..... 2 00
One month..... 65
One month (delivered by carrier)..... 65
By the week (delivered by carrier)..... 15

Subscribers who fail to receive their paper regularly will confer a favor upon us by reporting the same to this office by postal card.

THE WEEKLY.

One year, postage paid..... $1 00
Six months, postage paid..... 60

All business or news letters or telegrams should be addressed

POST-DISPATCH,
515 and 517 Market street.

TELEPHONE NUMBERS.

Editorial Rooms..... 501 Business Office..... 558

MONDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1886.

AMUSEMENTS TO-NIGHT.

GRAND OPERA-HOUSE—"Crazy Patch," OLYMPIC—"The Barbons" "Fantasma," POPE'S—"Peep."
PROGRESSIVE—Gus Williams.
STANDARD THEATRE—"Ox-y-gin."
PALACE MUSEUM—Open daily from 1 p. m. to 10 p. m.

MATINEE-TOMORROW.
STANDARD—"Ox-y-gin."

DAILY PROGRAMME

Of the Grand Autumnal Festival at St. Louis, 1886.

Monday, Oct. 4, Opening of the Annual Fair. Children's Day. Gilmore's Concerts at the Exposition. Grand Annual Pageant and Ball of the Vested Proprietors. Gilmore's Concerts at the Exposition. Grand Concerts at the Exposition. Grand Illumination of the Boulevard.

Wednesday, Oct. 6, Gilmore's Popular Potpourri Concert at the Exposition. Grand Music Hall; Illinois State Fair; Grand Illumination of the Boulevard.

Thursday, Oct. 7, Big Thursday at the Fair and Exposition. The grand opening of the Anvil Chorus at the Busch Zouaves; Illumination at night.

Friday, Oct. 8, Grand Concerts at the Exposition. Grand Illumination of the Boulevard. Grand Concerts afternoon and evening by Gilmore's Band. Close of the Great Fair.

SOME of the Republican nominees are afraid that they will be stumped out or pushed off before election.

MR. BLAINE's thick-and-thin supporters seem determined to have another history from his graceful and facile pen.

PERHAPS the vacant Austrian mission is wavering and yearning for Cousin BEN FOLSOM. Cousin BEN possesses a shape that will fill the bill—or the vacancy.

A REPUBLICAN authority suggests that the Republican ticket should be put on the dry dock for alterations and repairs. This suggestion is based on the assumption that the barnacles have already begun work on the strange craft.

SENATOR JOHN SHERMAN has opened the campaign in Louisville, Ky., but has temporarily left the bloody shirt north of the Ohio River. It is a pity that a statesman's peculiar policy should cause his wardrobe to be scattered about the country in such a loose fashion.

THE entire absence of pleuro-pneumonia from St. Louis will probably be cited by the Chicago papers as additional proof of the old foggy spirit of this city. This deficiency may show a certain lack of progress, but even progress has its drawbacks when too impetuous.

THE chestnut bells rang merrily this morning when "the programme of the Veiled Prophet" was justly cried on the streets as a news attachment to our contemporaries. The Post-Dispatch effectively covered this subject several days ago; but it is well enough to have it repeated.

MISSIONARY POWELL said at Lexington, Mo., that the moderate drinker is to the spot what the creek is to the river; but the beauty and accuracy of the comparison are spoiled by the fact that the larger a stream becomes the more water it holds, while the farther a drinker advances on his career of dissipation the less water he contains.

THE latest foreign news contains the announcement that Turkey is making extraordinary preparations for defense on the northeastern border of Asia Minor. This is done, of course, as a protection against a contingent Russian invasion and indicates that the Porte is not a party to the rumored Franco-Russian alliance organized to thwart the purposes of England.

THE Democrats hold their primaries today and it is hoped that the convention which meets to-morrow will make up a ticket of good men. It would be no easy task to do as bad a piece of work as that turned out by the Republican convention, but there is sufficient material at hand for the worst kind of nominations if the convention should choose to lead in the wrong direction.

TWO HUNDRED French citizens have met and formed an organization with an assured membership of at least 400 to make their presence known and their influence felt in elevating the tone of local politics and promoting the city's welfare. As the object is to take counsel together in regard to men and measures, with a view to intelligent action independent of party whenever united action is required to elect the best men, to protect the ballot-box and to secure good government, this organization is entitled to a cordial welcome. With more votes at its command it might degenerate into a mere office-seeking club. But an organization composed of a few hundred citizens animated only by a high and earnest public spirit is always a valuable addition to the forces and elements at work in city politics.

EQUALIZATION IN TWO STATES.

Chicago newspapers are protesting vehemently against the supposed intention of the State Board of Equalization to add 30 per cent to the valuation of Chicago real estate. They declare that Cook County's assessments have been going up since 1877 while those in the rest of the State have been going down. Yet this year's town-lot assessment for the whole of Cook County, which includes all Chicago real estate, is only $113,000, or about half the assessment of St. Louis real estate, in which nothing outside the city limits is included. Chicago claims to have at least 50 per cent more people than St. Louis, and at least 50 per cent more capital invested in buildings and improvement. But disregarding that boastful claim and conceding that all the town lots and improvements in Cook County are worth in cash precisely the same as the town lots and improvements in the City of St. Louis, let us compare the real estate and railroad assessments of the two States.

Excluding her great Illinois Central Railroad, which alone pays twice as much State tax as all the railroads in Missouri, the State of Illinois averages the assessment of all her other railroads, including a very large proportion of small local branches, at $7,600 per mile. If Chicago's real estate valuation were doubled by the State Board to bring it up to the St. Louis assessment, and a corresponding increase added to the Illinois railroad assessment, the latter would be brought up to an average of $15,300 per mile. How does our Missouri assessment of $9,864 per mile compare with that figure?

Our State Board assesses St. Louis at nearly twice the valuation of Chicago, but is satisfied with a railroad assessment less than 30 per cent higher per mile than the Illinois railroad assessment. Yet a very large proportion of the Illinois roads are local lines crowded to the girth by close parallel and competing lines. Missouri's roads are mostly great trunk line monopolies, controlling the commerce and productions of the great Southwest with their pools, yet paying in State taxes to Missouri less than half as much as one Illinois line pays to that State.

It is the Missouri State Board is to accept the Illinois standard of assessing railroads in proportion to other property, it will be compelled either to reduce the St. Louis assessment one-half or raise that of the railroads from $9,864 to $19,728 per mile.

COURT PRESENTATIONS.

It is reported that Minister PHELPS refused to present the editor of the North American Review at the English Court because he published certain caustic criticisms of the present Administration at Washington. It is premature to deal exhaustively with such a report before ascertaining its exact truth; but the mere rumor is calculated to direct public attention to the nature of court presentations.

Violent's Husband Tamer.

From the New York Sun.

Lord Lonsdale, who told Violet Cameron all over the United Kingdom, and now proposes to do his prettest to win dollars on her in this country, is a trifle over six feet in height, and is broad and square shouldered. His hands are almost if not quite as large as John L. Sullivan's. As a boxer, Lonsdale wouldn't by any means be a chicken in Sullivan's hands. Sir George Chetwynd offended Mrs. Violent a few months ago, and Lonsdale, seeing Sir George in Ross's Box, promptly and thoroughly drubbed Sir George. Lonsdale's chief characteristic is his utter indifference to the opinion of folks, no matter who they are. He put it tersely when he said to a Sun man: "I don't care a damn for anybody." He drinks cordials after luncheon, and altogether is quite a rapid fellow. He dresses in exquisite taste during the day, but is rather flashy at night, when his evening dress shows a shirt front sprinkled with diamonds, and a white waistcoat with six diamonds for buttons. His sandy mutton-chop whiskers bob merrily as he talks, and summed up he is jolly, intensely satisfied with himself, and everybody else can go to the devil for aught but care.

Again the Plutocrat.

From the New York World.

The nomination of rich Mr. Andrew in opposition to rich Mr. Ames, for Governor of Massachusetts, illustrates another bad effect of the tendency we have noted in the Republicans to encourage a plutocracy in this country.

If one nominates a "man with a barrel," the other party is impelled to follow suit. A candidate puts a big campaign fund to his pretense to win dollars on her in this country, is a trifle over six feet in height, and is broad and square shouldered. His hands are almost if not quite as large as John L. Sullivan's. As a boxer, Lonsdale wouldn't by any means be a chicken in Sullivan's hands. Sir George Chetwynd offended Mrs. Violent a few months ago, and Lonsdale, seeing Sir George in Ross's Box, promptly and thoroughly drubbed Sir George. Lonsdale's chief characteristic is his utter indifference to the opinion of folks, no matter who they are. He put it tersely when he said to a Sun man: "I don't care a damn for anybody." He drinks cordials after luncheon, and altogether is quite a rapid fellow. He dresses in exquisite taste during the day, but is rather flashy at night, when his evening dress shows a shirt front sprinkled with diamonds, and a white waistcoat with six diamonds for buttons. His sandy mutton-chop whiskers bob merrily as he talks, and summed up he is jolly, intensely satisfied with himself, and everybody else can go to the devil for aught but care.

Again the Plutocrat.

From the New York World.

The nomination of rich Mr. Andrew in opposition to rich Mr. Ames, for Governor of Massachusetts, illustrates another bad effect of the tendency we have noted in the Republicans to encourage a plutocracy in this country.

If one nominates a "man with a barrel," the other party is impelled to follow suit. A candidate puts a big campaign fund to his pretense to win dollars on her in this country, is a trifle over six feet in height, and is broad and square shouldered. His hands are almost if not quite as large as John L. Sullivan's. As a boxer, Lonsdale wouldn't by any means be a chicken in Sullivan's hands. Sir George Chetwynd offended Mrs. Violent a few months ago, and Lonsdale, seeing Sir George in Ross's Box, promptly and thoroughly drubbed Sir George. Lonsdale's chief characteristic is his utter indifference to the opinion of folks, no matter who they are. He put it tersely when he said to a Sun man: "I don't care a damn for anybody." He drinks cordials after luncheon, and altogether is quite a rapid fellow. He dresses in exquisite taste during the day, but is rather flashy at night, when his evening dress shows a shirt front sprinkled with diamonds, and a white waistcoat with six diamonds for buttons. His sandy mutton-chop whiskers bob merrily as he talks, and summed up he is jolly, intensely satisfied with himself, and everybody else can go to the devil for aught but care.

Again the Plutocrat.

From the New York World.

The nomination of rich Mr. Andrew in opposition to rich Mr. Ames, for Governor of Massachusetts, illustrates another bad effect of the tendency we have noted in the Republicans to encourage a plutocracy in this country.

If one nominates a "man with a barrel," the other party is impelled to follow suit. A candidate puts a big campaign fund to his pretense to win dollars on her in this country, is a trifle over six feet in height, and is broad and square shouldered. His hands are almost if not quite as large as John L. Sullivan's. As a boxer, Lonsdale wouldn't by any means be a chicken in Sullivan's hands. Sir George Chetwynd offended Mrs. Violent a few months ago, and Lonsdale, seeing Sir George in Ross's Box, promptly and thoroughly drubbed Sir George. Lonsdale's chief characteristic is his utter indifference to the opinion of folks, no matter who they are. He put it tersely when he said to a Sun man: "I don't care a damn for anybody." He drinks cordials after luncheon, and altogether is quite a rapid fellow. He dresses in exquisite taste during the day, but is rather flashy at night, when his evening dress shows a shirt front sprinkled with diamonds, and a white waistcoat with six diamonds for buttons. His sandy mutton-chop whiskers bob merrily as he talks, and summed up he is jolly, intensely satisfied with himself, and everybody else can go to the devil for aught but care.

Again the Plutocrat.

From the New York World.

The nomination of rich Mr. Andrew in opposition to rich Mr. Ames, for Governor of Massachusetts, illustrates another bad effect of the tendency we have noted in the Republicans to encourage a plutocracy in this country.

If one nominates a "man with a barrel," the other party is impelled to follow suit. A candidate puts a big campaign fund to his pretense to win dollars on her in this country, is a trifle over six feet in height, and is broad and square shouldered. His hands are almost if not quite as large as John L. Sullivan's. As a boxer, Lonsdale wouldn't by any means be a chicken in Sullivan's hands. Sir George Chetwynd offended Mrs. Violent a few months ago, and Lonsdale, seeing Sir George in Ross's Box, promptly and thoroughly drubbed Sir George. Lonsdale's chief characteristic is his utter indifference to the opinion of folks, no matter who they are. He put it tersely when he said to a Sun man: "I don't care a damn for anybody." He drinks cordials after luncheon, and altogether is quite a rapid fellow. He dresses in exquisite taste during the day, but is rather flashy at night, when his evening dress shows a shirt front sprinkled with diamonds, and a white waistcoat with six diamonds for buttons. His sandy mutton-chop whiskers bob merrily as he talks, and summed up he is jolly, intensely satisfied with himself, and everybody else can go to the devil for aught but care.

Again the Plutocrat.

From the New York World.

The nomination of rich Mr. Andrew in opposition to rich Mr. Ames, for Governor of Massachusetts, illustrates another bad effect of the tendency we have noted in the Republicans to encourage a plutocracy in this country.

If one nominates a "man with a barrel," the other party is impelled to follow suit. A candidate puts a big campaign fund to his pretense to win dollars on her in this country, is a trifle over six feet in height, and is broad and square shouldered. His hands are almost if not quite as large as John L. Sullivan's. As a boxer, Lonsdale wouldn't by any means be a chicken in Sullivan's hands. Sir George Chetwynd offended Mrs. Violent a few months ago, and Lonsdale, seeing Sir George in Ross's Box, promptly and thoroughly drubbed Sir George. Lonsdale's chief characteristic is his utter indifference to the opinion of folks, no matter who they are. He put it tersely when he said to a Sun man: "I don't care a damn for anybody." He drinks cordials after luncheon, and altogether is quite a rapid fellow. He dresses in exquisite taste during the day, but is rather flashy at night, when his evening dress shows a shirt front sprinkled with diamonds, and a white waistcoat with six diamonds for buttons. His sandy mutton-chop whiskers bob merrily as he talks, and summed up he is jolly, intensely satisfied with himself, and everybody else can go to the devil for aught but care.

Again the Plutocrat.

From the New York World.

The nomination of rich Mr. Andrew in opposition to rich Mr. Ames, for Governor of Massachusetts, illustrates another bad effect of the tendency we have noted in the Republicans to encourage a plutocracy in this country.

If one nominates a "man with a barrel," the other party is impelled to follow suit. A candidate puts a big campaign fund to his pretense to win dollars on her in this country, is a trifle over six feet in height, and is broad and square shouldered. His hands are almost if not quite as large as John L. Sullivan's. As a boxer, Lonsdale wouldn't by any means be a chicken in Sullivan's hands. Sir George Chetwynd offended Mrs. Violent a few months ago, and Lonsdale, seeing Sir George in Ross's Box, promptly and thoroughly drubbed Sir George. Lonsdale's chief characteristic is his utter indifference to the opinion of folks, no matter who they are. He put it tersely when he said to a Sun man: "I don't care a damn for anybody." He drinks cordials after luncheon, and altogether is quite a rapid fellow. He dresses in exquisite taste during the day, but is rather flashy at night, when his evening dress shows a shirt front sprinkled with diamonds, and a white waistcoat with six diamonds for buttons. His sandy mutton-chop whiskers bob merrily as he talks, and summed up he is jolly, intensely satisfied with himself, and everybody else can go to the devil for aught but care.

Again the Plutocrat.

From the New York World.

The nomination of rich Mr. Andrew in opposition to rich Mr. Ames, for Governor of Massachusetts, illustrates another bad effect of the tendency we have noted in the Republicans to encourage a plutocracy in this country.

If one nominates a "man with a barrel," the other party is impelled to follow suit. A candidate puts a big campaign fund to his pretense to win dollars on her in this country, is a trifle over six feet in height, and is broad and square shouldered. His hands are almost if not quite as large as John L. Sullivan's. As a boxer, Lonsdale wouldn't by any means be a chicken in Sullivan's hands. Sir George Chetwynd offended Mrs. Violent a few months ago, and Lonsdale, seeing Sir George in Ross's Box, promptly and thoroughly drubbed Sir George. Lonsdale's chief characteristic is his utter indifference to the opinion of folks, no matter who they are. He put it tersely when he said to a Sun man: "I don't care a damn for anybody." He drinks cordials after luncheon, and altogether is quite a rapid fellow. He dresses in exquisite taste during the day, but is rather flashy at night, when his evening dress shows a shirt front sprinkled with diamonds, and a white waistcoat with six diamonds for buttons. His sandy mutton-chop whiskers bob merrily as he talks, and summed up he is jolly, intensely satisfied with himself, and everybody else can go to the devil for aught but care.

Again the Plutocrat.

From the New York World.

The nomination of rich Mr. Andrew in opposition to rich Mr. Ames, for Governor of Massachusetts, illustrates another bad effect of the tendency we have noted in the Republicans to encourage a plutocracy in this country.

If one nominates a "man with a barrel," the other party is impelled to follow suit. A candidate puts a big campaign fund to his pretense to win dollars on her in this country, is a trifle over six feet in height, and is broad and square shouldered. His hands are almost if not quite as large as John L. Sullivan's. As a boxer, Lonsdale wouldn't by any means be a chicken in Sullivan's hands. Sir George Chetwynd offended Mrs. Violent a few months ago, and Lonsdale, seeing Sir George in Ross's Box, promptly and thoroughly drubbed Sir George. Lonsdale's chief characteristic is his utter indifference to the opinion of folks, no matter who they are. He put it tersely when he said to a Sun man: "I don't care a damn for anybody." He drinks cordials after luncheon, and altogether is quite a rapid fellow. He dresses in exquisite taste during the day, but is rather flashy at night, when his evening dress shows a shirt front sprinkled with diamonds, and a white waistcoat with six diamonds for buttons. His sandy mutton-chop whiskers bob merrily as he talks, and summed up he is jolly, intensely satisfied with himself, and everybody else can go to the devil for aught but care.

Again the Plutocrat.

From the New York World.

The nomination of rich Mr. Andrew in opposition to rich Mr. Ames, for Governor of Massachusetts, illustrates another bad effect of the tendency we have noted in the Republicans to encourage a plutocracy in this country.

If one nominates a "man with a barrel," the other party is impelled to follow suit. A candidate puts a big campaign fund to his pretense to win dollars on her in this country, is a trifle over six feet in height, and is broad and square shouldered. His hands are almost if not quite as large as John L. Sullivan's. As a boxer, Lonsdale wouldn't by any means be a chicken in Sullivan's hands. Sir George Chetwynd offended Mrs. Violent a few months ago, and Lonsdale, seeing Sir George in Ross's Box, promptly and thoroughly drubbed Sir George. Lonsdale's chief characteristic is his utter indifference to the opinion of folks, no matter who they are. He put it tersely when he said to a Sun man: "I don't care a damn for anybody." He drinks cordials after luncheon, and altogether is quite a rapid fellow. He dresses in exquisite taste during the day, but is rather flashy at night, when his evening dress shows a shirt front sprinkled with diamonds, and a white waistcoat with six diamonds for buttons. His sandy mutton-chop whiskers bob merrily as he talks, and summed up he is jolly, intensely satisfied with himself, and everybody else can

BULLY BULGARIANS.

MASS-MEETING AT SOFIA REJECTS THE RUSSIAN DEMANDS.

KAULBARS FORCED TO WITHDRAW FROM THE TRIBUNE.—A TUMULTUOUS GATHERING.—A RUSSIAN SYMPATHIZER ROUGHLY HANDLED.—MEETING ADOPTS RESOLUTIONS UPHOLDING THE CONSTITUTION.—CHURCHILL'S SPEECH.

A TELEGRAM TO THE POST-DISPATCH.

LONDON, October 4.—"Churchill's speech Saturday confirms my interpretation of the aspiration of the Morning Post article."

"The speech is regarded as being a burial of King Jing's."

"Only a abandoned member of the Tory party had ground for complaint in this."

"As regards domestic affairs, the charge of the loss that he has stolen the whole Liberal clothes is by no means without foundation."

"Several points, such as the closure of the state by the majority, which he denounced as the opposition, he now introduces government proposals. The three acres and a cow, the sale of glebe lands, but in the collection of free schools, all are of course, similar points in the Liberal platform."

"On several other points, it is fair to add, Churchill's speech does much to confirm the position of the Government."

"The impression among politicians and the public is that much more to be done in Ireland upon these lines, their prospects for continuance in office were never brighter."

Bulgaria.

CONSPIRATORS RELEASED.

LONDON, October 4.—All but seven of the conspirators who were under arrest for complicity in the deposition of the Prince Alexander have been released.

A TUMULTUOUS GATHERING.

Five thousand persons attended the meeting of the conference last night. The report of the conference was read. Churchill, Gen. Kaulbars and the Bulgarian agent, Dr. Voutchekoff, who called out the Russian agent to request his resignation in Russia's demands.

The audience cheered. Dr. Voutchekoff, during his speech, had uttered a broadside of abuse.

Dr. Voutchekoff proposed, and the meeting adopted, a resolution denouncing the Russian government for its want of moral and national support so long as contained to maintain the independence of Bulgaria.

The laws of the country. During the proceedings a Russian arose and shouted: "Long live the Tsar!"

He was at once set upon by the audience and roughly handled and would probably have been killed if the Gen. had not rescued him and conducted him to a place of safety.

While the proceedings were in progress, Gen. Kaulbars suddenly and unexpectedly appeared and was received with a roar of applause.

His appearance made a sensation.

The audience became quiet, and spectacular.

He was there to express the Tsar's desire that he was at once loudly interrupted.

He was once loudly interrupted.

SITUATIONS WANTED—MALES.

Bookkeepers.

WANTED—In some good business by good penman and book-keeper; willing to commence at once. Address T 65, this office.

Clerks and Salesmen.

WANTED—A young man, 19 years, good penman and a good position as collector, or office work of some kind; can bring reference from former employer. Address F 65, this office.

The Trades.

WANTED—A good non-union plumber and gas-fitter wants situation. Apply 2745 Wash. st. 38

WANTED—Situation by harnessmaker also good penman. Apply 1332 Franklin st. 38

WANTED—Good tailor on fine coats; good wages. Apply 1332 Franklin st. 38

WANTED—Twenty-five girls to sew on pants at 2440 N. Broadway; steady work all winter.

WANTED—Good tailors on fine coats; good wages. Apply 1332 Franklin st. 38

WANTED—Apprentices to both, neck and waist, and willing to learn dressmaking. 2630 Lucas st. 69

General Housework.

WANTED—Girl for general housework at 905 Moreland. Apply 2745 Wash. st. 38

WANTED—A good girl for general housework at once. 2716 Lucas st. 69

WANTED—A good girl to do general housework. Apply to 1332 Franklin st. 38

WANTED—A good girl for general housework; good wages. Apply 1332 Franklin st. 38

WANTED—Apprentices to both, neck and waist, and willing to learn dressmaking. 2630 Lucas st. 69

HELP WANTED—MALE.

Clerks and Salesmen.

WANTED—Experienced grocery clerk, single, at 2712 Franklin av.

WANTED—Two gentle men of energy and good address, to go into business with me. Apply 1332 Franklin st. 38

WANTED—A young man, age 17, with some experience in grocery business; must speak German, and references required. 908 Old Manchester Rd., Rock Spring; take Market st. extension car. 24

Individual Instruction is given to all students at the ST. LOUIS MERCANTILE COLLEGE, Our Washington and Fourth st., BOOK-KEEPING, PENMANSHIP, SHORTHAND, TYPE-WRITING, GRAMMAR, etc., thoroughly taught.

Day and Evening Sessions. Write for our new catalogue.

PERKINS & HERPEL, Proprietors.

Bruce & Shattock
BUSINESS, SHORT-HAND AND ENGLISH TRAINING SCHOOL, CORNELL & KIRKWOOD, 1312 Market st. The institution offers the best facilities for giving practical instruction in the commercial and literary departments. The school is well equipped. Graduates are successful in getting employment. For circulars, address Dr. W. M. Carpenter, President.

Stenographers.

WANTED—Party to read to stenographer. Address W 63, this office.

The Trades.

WANTED—A butcher at 22d and Clark av.

WANTED—One tanner at Lampav. and Lynch. John Durand.

WANTED—Two butchers tailors at 614 Morgan st. 59

WANTED—Wood-worker on wood and iron work. Address 1425 Linden st. 58

WANTED—First-class boot-fitter. W. P. Connell, n. e. cor. 4th and Franklin av.

WANTED—Cabinet-maker, upholsterer. Apply at St. Louis Furniture Co., 1000 Market st. 51

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—A good carpenter at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Eight first-class carpenters at Benton St. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Eight first-class carpenters at Benton St. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—A good horse-shoe, trimmer and fitter. Apply to H. D. & M. D. Mullins, 514 Chestnut st. 55

Laborers.

WANTED—Plumber's laborers. 1512 Park av. 59

WANTED—Fifty teams and drivers on Grant av. and 1st st.; two months work; boarders furnished. Wm. H. Franklin.

WANTED—About 50 shovels and 30 wagons to work in and out of the house. Apply at Mills & Averill's, 5th and 58 st. 58

WANTED—Coalmakers to work in and out of the house. Apply at Mills & Averill's, 5th and 58 st. 58

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

WANTED—Four good carpenters at 2301 Market st. Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. 55

DRESS

HER SHOES

Now for the Veiled Prophet's Ball, you FINE GOODS at prices to buy if you only use them for Note the prices:

Patent Leather Congress $4.00

Patent Leather Button 4.00

French Calf Patent Leather 5.00

Patent Leather Oxfords 4.00

Congress, the Finest Make 8.50

From $2.50 Up

partment, embracing LADIES' best Styles of LADIES' BUTTON SHOES of every description year of Parrish, and Olive Streets.

A MISSING HEIRESS.

Long and Fruitious Search for Mrs. Annie Frances Barker.

Barker to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, October 4.—The following advertisement was published recently:

HERR—Information of the whereabouts of

Annie Frances Barker—widow name of Dr. J. McNaib—her death was suitably paid for. Address J. McNaib, Bevoise place, Brooklyn, N. Y.

McNaib said last night to the Post-Dispatch correspondent: "Mrs. Barker was a wife of Mr. Frank H. Frost, of New York, on Sept. 7, at 41 Spring street, New York, and it

she has a twelfth interest in his estate, it is valued at $100,000. Mr. Frost will, as his rising real estate, bonds and money,

a division between the three new properties, that is, if Mrs. Barker is living, can be discovered.

The son-inof Mrs. Barker has an interest in the search for her,

but as far as

no trace of her movement has been discovered

as far as

Frances' heart she moved in good order and was everywhere

a beautiful and accompanied woman. She was about 20 years old when Alonzo Barker

in after seven years of marriage took a position between her and her husband retained the custody of two children for a wife two years old, when the home was up. The last that was ever definitely known of her was when she came to see her children.

Mrs. Barker, AGAINST HER

will, as he walked in the darkness. Her husband was said, tried afterwards for several years to find his wife and the closest search. Her children, of whom are at present in New York, and mother, but they are now naturally interested in the search, as her husband, was and Mr. Barker, in reference to

and he has promised to render all possible services for his wife, and that twenty years ago he now

since she disappeared. Mr. Prout,

now 83 years old, is to be

and a widower,

and he made his

in the manufacture of printing ink

in street, and died in adjoining the factory. He retired suddenly from business, about two years ago,

and he received a copy

of the "Times" and

and he has promised to render all possible services for his wife,

and the twenty years ago he now

since she disappeared, Mr. Prout,

now 83 years old, is to be

and a widower,

and he made his

in the manufacture of printing ink

in street, and died in

adjoining the factory. He retired suddenly from business, about two years ago,

and he received a copy

of the "Times" and

and he has promised to render all possible services for his wife,

and the twenty years ago he now

since she disappeared, Mr. Prout,

now 83 years old, is to be

and a widower,

and he made his

in the manufacture of printing ink

in street, and died in

adjoining the factory. He retired suddenly from business, about two years ago,

and he received a copy

of the "Times" and

and he has promised to render all possible services for his wife,

and the twenty years ago he now

since she disappeared, Mr. Prout,

now 83 years old, is to be

and a widower,

and he made his

in the manufacture of printing ink

in street, and died in

adjoining the factory. He retired suddenly from business, about two years ago,

and he received a copy

of the "Times" and

and he has promised to render all possible services for his wife,

and the twenty years ago he now

since she disappeared, Mr. Prout,

now 83 years old, is to be

and a widower,

and he made his

in the manufacture of printing ink

in street, and died in

adjoining the factory. He retired suddenly from business, about two years ago,

and he received a copy

of the "Times" and

and he has promised to render all possible services for his wife,

and the twenty years ago he now

since she disappeared, Mr. Prout,

now 83 years old, is to be

and a widower,

and he made his

in the manufacture of printing ink

in street, and died in

adjoining the factory. He retired suddenly from business, about two years ago,

and he received a copy

of the "Times" and

and he has promised to render all possible services for his wife,

and the twenty years ago he now

since she disappeared, Mr. Prout,

now 83 years old, is to be

and a widower,

and he made his

in the manufacture of printing ink

in street, and died in

adjoining the factory. He retired suddenly from business, about two years ago,

and he received a copy

of the "Times" and

and he has promised to render all possible services for his wife,

and the twenty years ago he now

since she disappeared, Mr. Prout,

now 83 years old, is to be

and a widower,

and he made his

in the manufacture of printing ink

in street, and died in

adjoining the factory. He retired suddenly from business, about two years ago,

and he received a copy

of the "Times" and

and he has promised to render all possible services for his wife,

and the twenty years ago he now

since she disappeared, Mr. Prout,

now 83 years old, is to be

and a widower,

and he made his

in the manufacture of printing ink

in street, and died in

adjoining the factory. He retired suddenly from business, about two years ago,

and he received a copy

of the "Times" and

and he has promised to render all possible services for his wife,

and the twenty years ago he now

since she disappeared, Mr. Prout,

now 83 years old, is to be

and a widower,

and he made his

in the manufacture of printing ink

in street, and died in

adjoining the factory. He retired suddenly from business, about two years ago,

and he received a copy

of the "Times" and

and he has promised to render all possible services for his wife,

and the twenty years ago he now

since she disappeared, Mr. Prout,

now 83 years old, is to be

and a widower,

and he made his

in the manufacture of printing ink

in street, and died in

adjoining the factory. He retired suddenly from business, about two years ago,

and he received a copy

of the "Times" and

and he has promised to render all possible services for his wife,

and the twenty years ago he now

since she disappeared, Mr. Prout,

now 83 years old, is to be

and a widower,

